

“There was this very deep feeling in me to proclaim God’s message to people, to share about the love of God,”

Father Leonard Jinga graduated from Newton College a number of years ago and is one of the hundreds of priests who have been spreading the Gospel throughout Papua New Guinea. Life at the College is difficult as the students’ stipend must often support their families, who live with them while they study.

Support students like Father Leonard by making a donation to Newton College.

Lent Appeal

In Supo, a small remote village in the Philippines, collecting water was a back-breaking task. Women had to walk long distances up and down steep slopes carrying pots heavy with water. ABM has funded pipes and tanks to supply the whole village with clean water, easing the burden of poverty. There are many more villages in the mountains of the Northern Philippines that need clean, safe water.

Supply clean water to villages like Supo by donating to the Lent Appeal.

“I didn’t choose myself.
God had chosen me.
God had chosen me!”

The Revd Yulki Nunggumajbarr became the first traditional Aboriginal woman to be ordained an Anglican priest last September. Yulki was one of the first of her people to live at Roper River mission. Like the missionaries who first gave her refuge, she has answered God’s call in her life by training at Nungalingya College and joining the priesthood.

Support others like Yulki by funding Nungalingya Theological College.

This Lent I would like to help ABM:

- Supply clean water in the Philippines (tax deductible)
- Support Nungalingya Theological College in the Northern Territory
- Fund students at Newton College in Papua New Guinea
