Praying for LOVE, HOPE AND JUSTICE

The ABM Prayer Diary

Praying for LOVE, HOPE AND JUSTICE

I am pleased to introduce Praying for Love, Hope and Justice, ABM's new prayer diary. Prayer remains central to ABM's mission, and this prayer diary invites you to join us in upholding this work in your daily prayers.

What follows is a collection of prayers shaped by the stories and hopes of those with whom we work across Australia and the Anglican Communion. These prayers call us to reflect on God's love and the hope we have in Christ to bring about justice. It can be used on its own, or as a companion to Love, Hope and Justice in Action.

For your convenience, we have included the Anglican Church of Australia's Prayer Cycle, enabling you to pray for Anglican dioceses and ministries around the country.

Thank you for your faithful support of ABM's work. May this prayer diary enrich your spiritual journey and strengthen our shared commitment to God's mission.

Yours in Christ,

The Rev'd Dr John Deane
Executive Director of ABM and AID

ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER LEADERSHIP

God and creator of our ancient land and peoples, we come before you with humble hearts. Teach us the courage of truth-telling – to listen deeply, to name injustice honestly, and to walk in integrity.

We thank you for strengthening First Nations leadership through the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Leadership Fund, empowering communities through reconciliation, education, and gospel engagement.

We remember especially Gawura School (Sydney) and Nungalinga College (Darwin). Build bridges of understanding, and make us instruments of your peace, truth, and transforming love.

May justice, dignity, and hope grow, and may your Spirit guide a future shaped by truth, leadership, and life in all its fullness. We ask this in the Name of Christ, our liberator.

Amen.
